CLJ’s DIGEST OF SENTENCING DECISIONS
Incorporating Selected Decisions Of The Malaysian Courts Since 1990

CLJ’s Digest of Sentencing Decisions leads the market in providing an accurate, comprehensive and dependable compendium of sentencing decisions, addressing the entire spectrum of criminal sentencing of more than two decades.

The all-encompassing case narratives advert not only to the issues in dispute and substantive findings of the courts, but also to every other material details such as trial number, citation, relevant statutes, brief facts of case as well as ratio of sentence – all succinctly summarised with clarity and precision. The work is enhanced with editorial noter-up which provides short yet highly informative narrations, identifying potential aggravating and mitigating factors.

ISLAMIC LAW OF SUCCESSION
A Practical Guide To The Laws Of Faraid (2nd Edition)
by Wan Noraini Mohd Salim

The second edition of “Islamic Law of Succession, A Practical Guide to the Laws of Faraid” provides readers with an updated and more in-depth discussion on the essential rules, principles and actual distribution of an estate based on the portions prescribed in the divine sources of Islamic law. While retaining the original work, this edition includes new information on hibah and the method of distribution in cases of multiple deaths.

As with its predecessor, the book also provides abundant examples on the calculation of shares and portions each of the heirs are entitled to in different circumstances. Those who enjoy mathematical challenges may attempt all the exercises in Appendix 2 of the book. A table of portions is provided as a quick reference.

COMPANY DIRECTORS & THE LAW
by Nasser Hamid

This book covers the entire spectrum of the roles and responsibilities of directors. The main emphasis is on decided cases interpreting the Companies Act 1965. Generally, the courts will not interfere with the internal management of a company; therefore this book is intended to provide an avenue into the limit and scope of the Companies Act 1965 and the decisions of directors. The Company Directors & The Law book is also an essential reference and source of advice for all new and existing directors.

STAY OF PROCEEDINGS
by Nasser Hamid

Where there is an order for a stay of execution of an order of court, the effect is that the order appealed from is not carried into effect or its execution is suspended with or without any terms or conditions attached to the order staying execution of that earlier order, while the appeal is being determined. The order which has been stayed shall not be operative with effect from the time of the making of the order of stay. The order of court is in effect ‘in abeyance’ it has not been set aside, only that the said order shall not be operative from the time of the making of the order of stay.
The Employment Act 1955 spells out the statutory minimum benefits that employers are bound to provide to their employees in the private sector. There are many employees who do not enjoy these statutory minimum benefits out of ignorance of the law, and likewise, there are also employers who do not provide these benefits out of the same ignorance. This book explains the provisions of the Employment Act 1955 in the context of practical examples supplemented with relevant case law.

EMPLOYMENT LAW AND THEORY
A Malaysian Focus With A Comparative Perspective
by Dr. Vanitha Sundra-Karean

Employment Law and Theory – A Malaysian Focus with a Comparative Perspective is a publication which provides the reader with an overview and general background of the Employment Act 1955 in the context of practical examples supplemented with relevant case law.

PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION
Cases And Commentary With Applied Syari’ah Principles
by Dr. Leo Desmond Pointon, Joeng Chuan Phucc

The law of personal data protection deals with the various issues that arise in the process of protecting the rights of persons in possession of personal data. In the public mind there is often confusion between privacy and personal data. It will be seen from the Personal Data Protection Act 2010 that they are separate issues in the eyes of the law. This book sets out the international personal data protection principles as incorporated by the Malaysian government in the Personal Data Protection Act 2010, and introduces a highly innovative and distinctive approach, namely the “Compliance Approach Methodology” for application at both professional and management levels.

MALAYSIAN TOWN & COUNTRY PLANNING LAW AND PROCEDURE
by Ainul Jaria Binti Maidin

The book “Malaysian Town and Country Planning – Law and Procedure” by Dr. Ainul Jaria provides critical information for everyone seeking to understand the law relating to sustainable land development and the construction industry in Malaysia. Encapsulated within 15 Chapters, the book beckons the readers to a spirited discourse on the historical evolution of the planning law, the principles applicable in the formulation of planning policies, the decision-making processes of the planning authorities and the processes and procedures for administrative appeals and judicial review.

RULES OF COURT 2012
P.U.(A) 205/2012
As at 1 March 2013 Incorporating the amendments in P.U.(A) 67/2013

The 1980 High Court Rules and the 1980 Subordinate Court Rules have been merged to become the Rules of Court 2012. The purpose of the new Rules of Court 2012 is to facilitate and standardise civil case procedures in court, as well as improve the quality of the justice system in the country.

The Rules of Court 2012 which has come into effect on 1 August 2012, replaces the 1980 Rules of High Court and the 1980 Subordinate Courts Rules. It contains some significant changes to portions of the previous rules of court. The new rules is a must have for all in the judiciary, legal profession and academia.
